

Thank You God, You're Our Redeemer

August Ludvig Storm (1862-1914) Tr. by Carl E. Backstrom (1901-1984), alt.
Tune: John A. Hultman (1861-1942) TACK O GUD

1. Thank You God; You're our Re - dee - mer, and for
2. Thanks You for pray'rs that You've an - swer'd and for
3. Thanks for ro - ses by our way - side, and for 4 all that You pro - vide! Thanks for times in all our mem - 'ries, Je - sus pray'rs which You've de - nied! And for storms that we've had wea - ther'd, thanks for thorns their stems con - tain! Thanks for home and thanks for fire - side, thanks for 8 came, to our own side! Thank You for Your soo - thing spring-time. Thanks for all that You've sup - plied! Thanks for pain and thanks for plea - sure. Thanks for hope, that sweet re - frain! Thanks for joy and thanks for sor - row, and Your 12 dark and drea - ry fall! And our tears, now long for - got - ten, 'twas Your com - fort in des - pair, Lord, Your grace no - one can mea - sure; and Your gift of heav'n - ly peace! And Your hope, to - day, to - mor - row, and for 16 peace placed in our souls! _____

love's be - yond com - pare! _____
all e - ter - ni - ty! _____